

PROJECT
Appleseed
Liberty ★ Marksmanship ★ Heritage

Quail Creek Range, Argyle, TX
October 2-3 - November 13-14

The Revolutionary War Veterans Association (RWVA) will conduct rifle marksmanship & American heritage clinics this fall at the Quail Creek Range in Argyle, Texas. Come be a part of the biggest and most wide-spread program to mark the history and heritage of rifle marksmanship and the role it played in our country's history--starting with the events of April 19th, 1775, the day

"When Marksmanship Met History, and Liberty was Born..."

Pre-Reg: $45/one day, $70/both | Walk on: $50/one day, $80/both

FREE: Women, Anyone under 21, Active Military, and Law Enforcement

Note: This event is 22 rimfire only, and kids must be over 12 years old due to range restrictions.

Space is Limited - Pre-register at: www.appleseedusa.org

What You Can Expect

- ✓ New Shooters - learn safety, rifle fundamentals and quickly improve your skill level.
- ✓ Experienced Shooters – learn techniques to tighten your groups, & how to analyze your target.
- ✓ Experts – polish skills, become an RWVA Instructor in Training and pass on knowledge.
- ✓ Everyone – expect to have a great time!

What You Should Bring

- ✓ A desire to learn and improve.
- ✓ A rifle (and a spare, if you have it)
- ✓ Ammunition: At least 250 rounds per day.
- ✓ Scope OK. GI web sling strongly recommended.
- ✓ Eye & ear protection. Mat or ground cloth.
- ✓ Hat & sunscreen. Rain gear, layered clothes.
- ✓ Water, lunch, snacks. Some friends!

www.appleseedusa.org

Contact: lolhan@1scom.net or PM: "doubleLL" on the Appleseed forum

Find us on Facebook - Search for "AppleseedTexas"