Host Range Fee

In contrast to the Appleseed Instruction Fee which goes to Project Appleseed, the Host Range Fee goes directly to the host and is collected by the host at the Appleseed event whenever possible. Appleseed may list the range fee in their promotional information for Appleseed events at your facility.

Host Range Fee: None: ☐ Per Person per Day: $ OR Per Person per Event: $

In such cases as when Project Appleseed agrees to collect the Host Range Fee per request by the host for the host, Appleseed needs to know the host's choices regarding range fee exemptions. There are a number of possible exemptions for the host to consider that correlate with Project Appleseed's exemptions or greatly reduced instruction fees in order to encourage the following categories of shooters:

- Women
- Responsible persons under 21 (Youth)
- Duly-sworn Law Enforcement Officers (LEO's)
- Current members of the armed services
- Elected officials
- Disabled
- Revolutionary War re-enactors in period clothing

As the host, please indicate your choices on whether to exempt the following shooters from the Host Range Fee:

Host Members Exempt?	Yes: <input type="checkbox"/>	No: <input type="checkbox"/>
Youth Exempt?	Yes: <input type="checkbox"/>	No: <input type="checkbox"/>	If so, youth to what age? _____

Revolutionary War Re-enactors Exempt?	Yes: <input type="checkbox"/>	No: <input type="checkbox"/>

In the rare case when Appleseed agrees to pay rent for the range, Appleseed reserves the right to make its own choices for the above items.

positions. We operate by strict safety rules; in the event there are special safety rules relevant to your range, we will strictly adhere to them, as well.

All participants and observers on the range during the Appleseed event will be required to sign RWVA liability waivers. If attendees are required to sign a host range/club liability release waiver for your facility, it is incumbent upon the host to provide, collect, and maintain this information. Likewise with any associated range fees.

By agreeing to host an Appleseed event, the host also agrees to undertake certain responsibilities; chief among these is to promote Appleseed within the host's local community, to include: club/range membership, local gun shops and other related businesses and locations. Advertisement within the local media is at the host's own discretion; some assistance in this may be available.

RWVA will make a master flier available for local reproduction, along with full-color brochures about the Appleseed program, if requested. Our experience has shown that local effort to 'get the word out' can have a dramatic impact on actual turnout.

The host agrees to ensure that the ranges reserved for this event are not in conflict with other events. The host is responsible to ensure that RWVA staff will have access to the range and facilities by 7:30 am each day of the event.

The host agrees to provide target stands and backers. RWVA will provide direction as to the set up and assist with volunteers when able. If the host can supply volunteers to assist in parking, registration, food preparation, etc, it would be most appreciated.

The intent of this agreement is to promote the cause, and to allow us to work together to maximize the size and impact of the event at your facility. We are very interested in your feedback, and welcome all comments and criticisms, as we constantly strive to improve our program. This partnership can be a win-win for both of our organizations. In fact, we hope that you will, at the culmination of your first event, provide us a testimonial that we can use as an introduction to future potential hosts to encourage them to participate in this growing program.
